

I'm disturbed that the public airwaves can be used for a partisan political advertisement under the guise of "news" without any corresponding fairness.